The Isthmus of Tehuantepec is legendary in Mexico for its powerful Zapotec culture and iconic clothing. The embroidered velvet or satin blouses and skirts lined with starched lace are admired throughout the country. Our journey takes us into the heart of the isthmus and into the homes of skilled artisans who embroider colorful flowers of fine thread. We'll also visit three of Mexico's great masters of threaded art. Two are weavers coming from very distinctive traditions and cultures (Zapotec and Huave) and the other has taken traditional embroidery into the realm of contemporary art. We'll also visit the lively Tehuantepec market, small villages and immerse ourselves in a fascinating land seldom visited by tourists*. (PostT-6)
